

Expense Reimbursement Policy

Document ID: POL-FIN-002 | Version 2.0 | Effective from 1 July 2025 | Owner: Finance

1. Purpose

This policy sets out which business expenses employees can claim, the limits that apply, and how to submit a claim. It applies to all employees. Expenses that are incurred during overnight business travel are also covered by the Business Travel Policy.

2. Eligible Expenses

2.1 Meals

Employees on business duty within their base city may claim meals up to the daily limit for their grade. The limit depends on grade, as shown below.

Grade	Daily meal limit
L1 to L2	INR 800
L3 to L4	INR 1,200
L5 and above	INR 2,000

Meals during overnight business travel are covered by the per diem in the Business Travel Policy (POL-FIN-005) and not by the limits above.

2.2 Local Transport

Taxi, cab and auto-rickshaw fares for business travel within a city are reimbursable with receipts. Employees are encouraged to use app-based cabs where available, since these provide a digital receipt automatically. Personal commuting between home and the office is not reimbursable.

2.3 Client Entertainment

Client meals and entertainment must be approved in advance by the Department Head. The claim must name the client company and list all attendees.

3. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

The following expenses are not reimbursable:

- Personal travel and personal commuting
- Traffic fines, parking penalties and other fines
- Alcohol, except at pre-approved client events

- Gifts to colleagues
